

California Community Colleges- Vision Resource Center

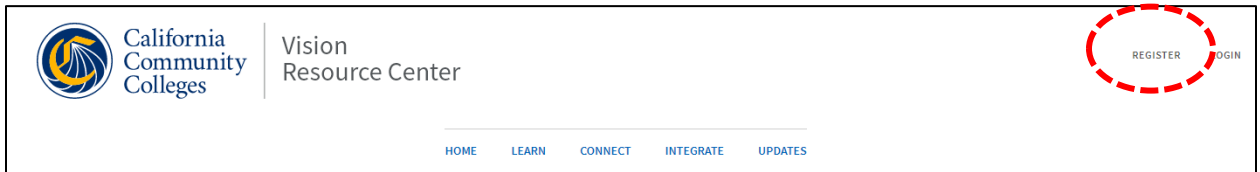

What is the California Community Colleges Vision Resource Center?

The Vision Resource Center is the portal used by California Community Colleges Professional Learning Network. The portal is accessible for all employees at Cuesta College, and offers numerous resources for personal and professional development.

How to Register

1. Click on the Vision Resource Center link on the from the Cuesta websites Online Tech Training page, or go to <https://visionresourcecenter.cccco.edu/>
2. Click on Register

- 3.
4. Complete the "Register" form onscreen and then click Submit.
5. Respond to the confirmation e-mail that will be sent to your inbox.

How to Locate Online Training Opportunities

1. Go to <https://visionresourcecenter.cccco.edu/>.
2. Click the General User Login button, then enter the username and password you created, and then click Enter.
3. Hover over the Learn menu, on the top left.
 - Select Learner Home
 - Type a topic of your choice or the name of a video in the Search field at the top of the screen
 - Click on a class to begin

