ABOUT THE AUTHOR

>> Héctor Tobar is a weekly columnist for the Los Angeles Times, a Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist and an award-winning novelist. He has been a city reporter and foreign correspondent as well as the Times bureau Chief in Buenos Aires and Mexico City. The son of Guatemalan immigrants, he is a native of Los Angeles, where he lives with his wife and three children.

BOOK INFORMATION >> The Barbarian Nurseries is a novel that defines America at the dawn of the 21st century. Beginning in a tony Orange County suburb, this is a portrait of the peculiar intersection between newly rich progressives, now suffering from 401(k) jitters, and the undocumented immigrant servants who keep them from having to face reality.
